

Donations, in support of our annual bazaar, of baking, squares, cookies, candy, deli items and handicrafts are most welcome and greatly appreciated. All donations should be at the church on Friday, November 28 by 7 p.m., especially the cookies, squares and candy needed to fill the containers. If you have any questions regarding the bazaar, please call Louise Breen at 519-369-3381.

The annual Christmas Luncheon for the ladies of our church is on Monday, December 8 at noon. Anna Hopkins is catering the meal at a cost of $29 per person. All ladies are welcome to attend and can get a ticket from Eleanor Marshall.

The Announcements

Good morning one and all. We extend our thanks to our own Brenda Calder for leading us in worship today while Will is away with Will Jr. at a volleyball tournament. You are invited downstairs following today's service for a time of refreshment and fellowship.

We were saddened to hear of the death of long-time church family member Pearl McCannell on November 2. The funeral service for Pearl will be here tomorrow at 10 a.m.

The Remembrance Day Service at Holstein will take place today at the Holstein Cenotaph at 2 p.m.

The Ladies are hosting its annual Chili Luncheon following the Remembrance Day Service this Tuesday.. The meal will be $12 per person. Eat-in or take out is available.

The Bible Study program (BEMA) continues on Wednesday at 6 p.m. Those interested can join any time.

Abena Anekunabe is participating in a fundraiser for her Grade 8 class trip to Ottawa. She is selling poinsettias in three sizes: 6", 8" and 10" and a range of colours. If you wish to place an order, please speak to Abena. She needs to have the orders into the school by November 26. The poinsettias can be picked up at JDSS on December 11 from 4 to 7 p.m.

We are planning to participate in the Santa Claus parade this year. It is on December 6. Please get in touch with Will (226 974 6265) if you are interested in participating or helping to set it up.

Speaking of the parade, the Durham and District Food Bank will be collecting food donations during the parade. The organization is looking for volunteers to help gather up the donations brought by parade spectators.

Cheryl McGaffey, a member of Foursquare Gospel Church, is organizing an event for November 22 to provide help for those who are struggling and in need. She is accepting donations of clothing, including coats and other outerwear, feminine hygiene products, other personal items such as toothpaste, toothbrushes, soap, etc., along with non-perishable food items. Donations should be to her by November 21. If you have any questions or are able to donate, please call her at 519-369-5144.
