Many thanks to all who helped with the Christmas Bazaar yesterday, whether you supported by helping, donating, or attending. . This event requires much time and work and your support is very much appreciated.

This year the CECL Committee's Christmas project is for people in our area experiencing homelessness. We are collecting toiletries and personal hygiene items like toothbrushes, toothpaste, soap, washcloths, deodorant, shaving items, women's hygiene items, etc. as well as used purses, bags or shaving kits to put these items in, so that they can be discreetly taken into a public washroom to be used.
